Seeger Wins Battle for Presidency

Officers Elected At AWS Assembly; Baker Heads AMS

Officers for the Associated Women Students were elected at an assembly in Social Hall last Tuesday.

Joy Schroeder was elected vice president; Shirley Wertz, secretary; and Jeanne Hon, treasurer.

The AWS elections were marked by the informality which is an essential part of the women students' group.

The president of AWS is Kathy Moore. Miss Moore won the run-off election from Beverly Zanoline. The election of the president is under the supervision of the student body election committee, but the other officers are chosen by nominations from the floor in a women's assembly.

Bob Baker, AMS head, will call a nominating assembly next week to elect other officers of the men's organization.

McNelis Gives Placement Tests To H. S. Students

College Placement Examinations for all students planning on attending Valley College or Los Angeles City College in September of 1950 were held Wednesday and Thursday in College Hall.

According to Mr. William McNelis, in charge of testing, the results of the tests will be available at the time the counselor meets with the new students. The purpose is to help the new students select a course of study which they will pursue through their college careers.

The examinations were not given to determine whether the students will be admitted to Valley.

Any high school student in the Valley area who plans on attending City College in September was given the opportunity to take the placement test at Valley rather than making the long

Gelb Gives Students Ideas for Journalism

Mr. Walter Gelb, editor and publisher of the West Valley Sun, outlined main journalistic points of interest last week to the Journalism I class.

His well rounded talk covered sports writing, headline writing, wire services, advertising and the factors involved in getting summer jobs on newspapers.

Mr. Gelb, a graduate of the University of Missouri, pointed out the necessity of varied experiences in journalism to be able to know something about all phases of newspaper work.

"THE VALLEY STAR is certainly doing a fine job," commented Mr. Gelb.

Aspiring Candidates Give Plans for Valley At Nominating Assembly

Valley College's third annual election assembly was held last Tuesday morning in College Hall and presented many good potential officers for Valley.

Bob Lunsford, ASB president, introduced the campaign managers who in turn introduced their candidates.

A.S.B. President

Kenny Thompson, president of the Knights, nominated Mike Seeger; Walt Tucker, member of the Executive Council introduced Dick Gifford, and Nick Giordano, president of the AMS, introduced Ella Cass—all of whom are running for the office of ASB president.

These candidates offered many fine qualifications. Gifford, a member of the Executive Council; Seeger, ASB vice president this term; and Miss Cass, editor in chief of THE VALLEY STAR—all stated their intentions of doing all they could in the interest of Valley.

A.S.B. Vice President

Candidates for vice president, Bob Wegener and Dick Yamashito, were introduced by Ed Scharff and Chuck Schreiber.

Shirley Holt and Dodie Joyce, in the running for ASB secretary, were nominated by Garth Myers and Chuck Castiglia.

Jim Pollack introduced Perry Carson, who with a majority of votes, will hold the office of ASB treasurer next semester.

Those running for AWS president—Kathy Moore, Beverly Zanoline and Charlene Shaw—were presented to the assembly by Nancy Helser, Michele Arons and Nancy Ohms.

Bob Baker, candidate for AMS president, was introduced by Jim Magee. With a majority of votes, Baker will hold the office next term.

Coaches Announce Athletic Awards, Lettermen Club

Coaches E. Y. Johnson, Charles Mann and Ben McFarland presented athletic awards to their respective athletes in basketball, tennis, baseball and track and announced that a lettermen club would soon be formed at Valley in the first annual letter award assembly held yesterday at College Hall.

Coach Bill Barnes of UCLA spoke at the assembly. He said "There is no game as near to life as football. You need courage, teamwork, the will to win and the ability to think things out for yourself."

Dr. Vierling Kersey explained the purpose of the assembly by saying, "This occasion is to honor clean, dynamic athletic competition."

Coach Charles Mann was pre-

Films, Speakers, Mickey Mouse Slated for Hall

Mr. Andrew Marton and Mr. Werner Klingler, both prominent motion picture directors, will speak tonight following the showing of "All Quiet On The Western Front," in College Hall at 8 p.m. Lew Ayres made his first star appearance in this film which has been considered the greatest war film of all time.

Mr. Klingler, who played a small part in the film has been directing films in Germany. His picture, "Razzia," was made in the Russian sector of Berlin.

Mr. Marton has directed such films as "Gallant Bess," "Gentle Annie," "Little Bit of Heaven" and "North Pole Ahoy" which was filmed in Greenland. He also directed the first film of both James Mason and Rex Harrison.

The first Mickey Mouse sound film, "Steamboat Willie," will be shown tonight along with the first Fox Movietone Newsreel with George Bernard Shaw.

As an interesting note, World War I shooting was taking place on the streets when "All Quiet" was being filmed.

Riviera Dance To Mark Close Of First Year

College dances are remembered long after other memories fade, according to old grads. Everyone should take care to garner some of these precious, indestructible recollections at the final Valley College semi-formal dance of the season on June 16 at the Riviera Country Club.

Sponsored by the Associated Students, the dance will doubtless be a brilliant affair, as the dance chairman, Shirley Holt, and her assistants have had a hand in every dance put on by the Monarchs this semester, with results which left nothing to be desired in the estimation of the student body. Assisting Miss Holt are: Dick Gifford, publicity chairman; Kathy Moore and Diane Baker, decorations committee; Bob Wegener, bids.

Bands are still being auditioned. Miss Holt and her committee are working to make the final dance a really terrific enterprise. They feel that this will be easy to do if they receive the student response which greeted other dances under their direction.

U. S. Naval Reserve Invites Monarchs To Open House

Valley students are invited to an open house being held at the Naval Reserve Armory, 851 Chavez Ravine Road, in Elysian Park by Battalion 11-5 of the U. S. Naval Reserve in connection with an enlistment drive.

Commander G. W. Casselman, commanding the battalion, has announced that billets with pay are open to former navy men and new enlistees and that there are some openings for women interested in becoming reserve Waves.

Week-end cruises are a regular part of the battalion's training, according to Commander Casselman. They have as destinations ports such as Ensenada, Santa Barbara and Catalina Island. A full days pay is given for attendance at each two and a half hour training session. Mr. John Tatum, Valley College instructor, can furnish further information to anyone who asks.

'TIME IS NOW,' SAYS COULTAS

Dr. James Dodson reminds students that they should come in at once for counseling if they are planning to attend summer school.

Veterans registering for summer classes should see Mr. Donald Prismon before the day is over and fill out subsistence forms required by the veteran's administration.

Mr. William McNelis and Dr. Dodson are NOW counseling for fall registration.

Mr. Walter Coultas says that early counseling will help students get the classes they want and avoid the confusion and frustration of long waiting periods during registration.

Moore, Winner; Gifford, Zanoline Lose In Run-Offs

Mike Seeger is ASB President. In a closely contested battle Dick Gifford lost the election by 14 votes—96 tallies to 110. Results of the run-off were tabulated last Friday. On the original ballot Seeger received 102 votes, Gifford, 87, Ella Cass, 20.

Kathy Moore won AWS presidency in the run-off. She received 50 tallies against Beverly Zanoline's 45. Originally Miss Moore received 37, Miss Zanoline 34 and Charlene Shaw 28.

Flash! The new emblem of Valley College is the LION. The Vote was 147 to 66 in the Lion's favor.

Vice President Close

Dick Yamashita will be Valley's new ASB vice president. This office was the closest as Yamashita only had a margin of three votes over Bob Wegener, who was also running. Yamashita received 104 votes to Wegener's 101.

Shirley Holt will hold the office of student body secretary for the coming semester. Miss Holt has been active on the Executive Council and in student government. Miss Holt had 112 votes against 91 for Dodie Joyce.

The office of ASB treasurer will be held by Perry Carson who was production manager for "All My Sons." Carson had a total of 190 votes.

Bob Baker, with 107 votes, will be Valley's new AMS president. Baker was active on AMS this semester, holding the office of treasurer.

ART CLASS SEES THE 'TITAN'

A theater party was held last Thursday evening by Miss Marie Scott's art appreciation class.

"The Titan," the story of Michelangelo, famous sculptor, painter and architect, was seen by the group.

"Students found that their study of sculpture from early Egyptian to modern times greatly aided their enjoyment of the film," commented Miss Scott.

Nordman, Class Tour USC Campus

Three Chemestry I students, Werner Keller, Donald Griessinger and Richard Hirschi, accompanied by Mr. J. B. Nordmann, Valley College chemistry instructor, attended the U.S.C. science departments open house last Saturday.

The tour included demonstrations of the powerful electron microscope, glass blowing and high vacuum technics and the manufacture of liquid air. The Valley group also went through various science laboratories on the S. C. campus.

"It was conclusively shown to my students, I think," grinned Mr. Nordmann, "that science is here to stay."

NOTICE

All library books should be returned immediately to both the college and high school libraries. Today is the final day to return books without paying fines.

Peacetime Bond Drive Underway

"Save For Your Independence: Buy U. S. Savings Bonds" is the current slogan for the Savings Bond Independence Drive which began last May 15 and will continue through July 4, 1950.

To open the drive, the Liberty Bell was rung for the first time since D Day, 1944. Replicas of the Bell, which has been chosen as symbol of the drive, will tour the nation.

National quota for the drive, which is expected to exceed that of any previous peacetime campaign, is $650,000,000 in E Bonds. The Southern California quota is $25,709,000.

The Thrift, Conservation and School Savings Section in cooperation with the U. S. Treasury Department is urging all students to support the Drive.

Dr. Campion Visits To Discuss Future

Dr. and Mrs. Howard A. Campion visited Valley College last Thursday morning. They discussed Valley at present and considered next year's plans with Dr. Vierling Kersey, Mrs. Nena Royer and Mr. Walter Coultas, the college directors.

The visitors went through the new buildings and expressed pleasure at the progress of Valley and its spirit.

A snack of coffee and doughnuts was served to the guests.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Students of Valley:

Just how may of you who are reading this registered to vote in this election? The total number of eligible voters was only 244. Out of an enrollment of over 600, this is a trifling number of active students.

WHY let a small clique run this college??? Why let them secure Student Body offices and then squawk? Why allow them to monopolize all the meetings at which we, the students, are supposed to be fairly represented?

The "why" is that there are too many lazy people in attendance here. If this school is to be for everyone, everyone must do his part and when election time comes up—if you want a voice in your government—register!

Students Voice Approval Of Extended Day Division

While day students at Valley have two semesters of activity behind them, evening extension students are just closing their Pioneer term at Valley. In retrospect there is a feeling of accomplishment and looking forward to other study experiences.

The small amount of technicality during registration and the well-planned curriculum have been deeply appreciated by these busy students. Some of them expressed the need for a summer session of the extension division. Others suggested that they would prefer meeting once a week for three hours instead of attending one and a half hour sessions twice a week.

James Mackay advanced the idea of including audio-visual training, or related subjects required for a vocational instructor's certificate.

Others suggested more music and cultural subjects, lectures and a few out-of class activities. Another said that a place to buy coffee or cokes would be welcomed.

Vincent Scipione advances one of the problems of this group: "I am pleased with the consideration given evening students in assignments. I still find that I have trouble covering the assignments, but I believe this is due to my limited time for studies and not to assignments that are too heavy."

This is the way Mrs. Ida Fattman summed up the attitude of evening students: "I would like to see the evening school meet one night a week instead of two . . . As for outside activities, we should have one club. Yet, most of us are so pressed for time that we can't handle another activity.

"I am personally very thankful to have a junior college located in the Valley. Otherwise, I would never be able to further my education," she concluded, and her sentiments were echoed by many others.

Psychiatrist Talks On Freudian Theory

Dr. Rudy Salomons, a specialist in psychiatric treatment, spoke to the Psychology 21 classes Monday morning.

His subject included elementary fundamentals of Freudian psychology and a description of psychoneurotic personalities.

Freud, an eminent psychiatrist of the 19th century, was founder of psychoanalysis and dream analysis and gave the modern era many new theories on psychology.

Dr. Salomons, whose office is on Wilshire Boulevard, was invited to speak at Valley by Mr. Charles Locks, Valley psychology instructor.

In the Mood

By DICK McGOWAN

Pete Rugolo made his debut as a band-leader last month at the Paramount Theatre in New York. The Stan Kenton arranger-conductor, shared the stage bill with Billy Eckstine. He not only supplied the music for Billy but also emceed the show.

If Dixieland wants to stay around, the musicians who play this style had better improve their brand. Now the music business is at its lowest ebb, and Dixieland isn't helping to get it out of the slump. At least not with the inferior type of music being played. Actually, they are not playing pure Dixie but a combination of the many forms of jazz. There are very few places where you can hear good Dixie. The recording companies are producing noise but certainly not Dixie, and it certainly is not played by Dixieland musicians. Men like Muggsy Spanier, Phil Napoleon, Jimmy McPartland and Bobby Hackett haven't even been approached to turn out records. Unless something happens soon, it looks like the Dixieland craze will soon land on the rocks.

Wot say! we all get behind the Valley Jazz Society. Quite a few people have approached me about the organization and seem very enthused with the plans. We have scheduled our first meeting for next week. I have an important guest who will appear at the meeting and do a little entertaining. His name? Well! you come to the meeting, and I guarantee you won't be disappointed.

The American Past, by Roger Butterfield, a history of the United States from Concord to Hiroshima, is now available at the Valley College Library. The author says The American Past contains more pictures from more different sources than any single volume of American history ever published.

THE VALLEY FORGE

By RAY CLUFF

It won't be long before we'll know what Churchill meant when he said blood, sweat and tears. Yes, finals are coming up, and I imagine there will be plenty of that nocturnal petroleum dissipated in the midnight lamps. There will be much cramming in the days that follow. You all know the definition of cramming—flubbing the dub for 19 weeks and then sitting up all night with 15½ units, a pack of Luckies and that perpetually sick friend Ben Z. Dreen. You've heard that every dog has his day—well, this will be the profs' day to howl. The previous statement is meant as an idiom, not a literal translation, but the inference is so satisfactorily pleasant that to change the sentence structure or wording would be almost an editorial sacrilege.

Registration

There has been a great deal of screaming and moaning over having to register to vote. How would you like to tell which way you are going to vote? No, that would go over like Myers' sport page. The type of person that won't bother to register wouldn't bother to go to the polls anyway, so what's the gripe? Come, come, kiddies, we're big children now. Remember 99 percent of us will vote in the election of 1952. We will have to become familiar with this type of balloting some time.

Valley's Hardballers Finish Season With Fair 3-7 Record in Metro Conference Horsehide Competition

By PAT FLAHERTY

Valley College's baseball team ended the 1950 season with a ten won and ten lost record, including practice and conference games.

Highlight of the season was probably the twin victories over Riverside and Compton J.C.'s in the Citrus Tournament.

The Monarchs started out the season in fine style, defeating Los Angeles City College twice within a week. Chuck Schreiber received credit for the victory 8-6, as Pete Nitrini and Ron Gerst cracked out two hits apiece to lead the "hit parade."

Pat Flaherty won his first contest of the year in the next encounter as he let the Cubs down with four hits. Terry Morse was the big stick for the day, collecting 4 safeties.

Defeat San Diego

The first conference game with San Diego was a thriller as Bob McCaffery, later signed by the Yankees, pitched a beautiful 2-1 thriller. Terry Morse drove in the winning marker in the last inning.

Valley then won a 5-3 contest from Van Nuys H. S. and dropped a 4-3 decision to North Hollywood H. S. Gerst, Morse and Nitrini stood out in these contests.

Santa Monica Loses

The Green and Gold then stunned Santa Monica C.C. with a ten inning 4-3 conference victory. Pat Flaherty pitched the complete game and drove in three runs, two of them coming with two away in the tenth to win his own game.

East Los Angeles J.C. then quieted the Monarchs' bats to the tune of 17-0 in a conference tussle, as did Bakersfield who came out on the long end of a 8-6 count.

Valley notched two wins at the expense of Antelope Valley, 7-1 and 5-0.

Win in Tournament

Riverside and Compton fell before Valley in the Citrus tournament in the thrilling doubleheader. Bob Edgerton and Pat Flaherty pitched the victories. Joe Wawrach, named on the all-town team, collected four for seven and Pat Flaherty garnered four for eight.

Phoenix (Arizona) then slapped a 17-8 defeat on the Monarchs.

Valley dropped two more decisions while in San Diego—losing the S.D.J.C. 5-1 and Air-Pac, a service team, 14-3.

Santa Monica Wins

Next in line was a 5-2 spanking and a heart breaking ten inning loss to Santa Monica C.C., 8-7.

Bob Edgerton then twirled a 6-3 victory over E.L.A.J.C., gaining revenge for an earlier defeat. Ron Gerst's homer sparked the victory. Nitrini, Gerst, Wawrach and Morse sparkled in most of these contests.

Valley Loses

Bakersfield again defeated Valley; this time by a 12-6 count. Everett Moore and Mel Wawrach sliced out two hits apiece.

El Camino then ruined Valley's bowing out effort, slapping a 10-1 defeat on the Monarchs. Gerst, Wawrach and Morse played fine ball in this one.

Coach E. Y. Johnson, mentor of this year's squad deserves a hand for the fine job he did with the boys this year.

The common sponge, often thought to be a plant, is in reality a form of lowly animal.

Sports Report

By GARTH MYERS

This hasn't got anything to do with Valley's athletics but it's an item of interest anyhow. Steve Turner of Glendale High School recently set a new national scholastic record in the high school 180 yard hurdles. He zipped over the lows in their recent league meet in the incredibly fast time of 18.9, a mark which he has bettered this season. I remember when Ronnie Frazier cleaned up on the low barriers over at Canoga Park when he was running for V.N.H.S. in the fast time of 19.0. Boy, I thought that would stand for a long time. Although they didn't give Frazier credit for the mark, a lot of people do, including myself. But that one is gone forever now!

All I can do now is yell "Fraud!" That's what I call it. My man, Ajax Entilechie, was robbed. So what if he didn't show up at the nomination assembly? Neither did Joe Zilch! Here my man was going to take all kinds of guff from anybody. Ajax would have gotten rid of any athletic events, anything to rid his bosom buddy, (me of course!) of a little work. Oh, well, maybe next year my other man, Joe Blow, the Eskimo, has a chance.

Jim Smith, Star Track Man, Holds Two Records; Thrill Was 4:30.7 Mile

By GARTH MYERS

Shades of Mercury! Well, he might not be as fast as that fabulous character, but he's darn close to it. Of course, you know of whom we speak? Why, Valley's ace record busting miler, Jim Smith.

Foggy Lungs

The way this scribe hears it, is that Jimmy was born with a track shoe in one hand and a cinder in the other on June 25, 1930, in our fair smog fogged metropolis of Los Angeles.

Jim is taking a general course here at Valley and has no immediate plans except for a possible enrollment at Bruinville, alias U.C.L.A.

Lettered Three Years

Van Nuys High is his alma mater, and that's where he started his track career, lettering three years in the mile and also doing a stint in the class B 1320. While at the aforementioned institution in '49, he set a new Valley League record in the 4 lapper with a blistering 4:34.5 turnover, a standard which managed to weather this season's onslaughts. Smith graduated last June from Van Nuys and then threw his lot in with Valley, much to the delight of track coach Charley Mann.

Jim Goes to Town

Last fall, Jimmy added a little to the Cross Country squad, but this current season is the one he really went to town in. Smith started the season with a mediocre 4:45.0 mile and ended up breaking the Metro Conference record of 4:41.2 held by Don Crie of San Diego. In the conference meet held at Santa Monica, Smith shattered the old standard with a blazing 4:31.1 try. Smith completely dominated the mile field that night.

Biggest thrill of this lean and lanky star's life concerning his track career was his 4:30.7 time against Bakersfield J.C. in dual competition. This did not count toward the record as a rule states that records must be set in the conference meet.

Smith also toyed around with the 880, managing to churn out a 1:59.4 effort against Santa Monica.

The boy did all right when it came to scoring points. He racked up a total of 55, probably better than any other team member.

If Smith decides to stay at this noble institution, which we hope he will, there may be another new conference mile mark next year. But if he doesn't, there is little doubt his record will stand for quite a while in this conference, unless he goes to another Metro school.

Girl Softballers Nip City College

Valley College's girl varsity baseball team scored a win over the Los Angeles City College's nine last Thursday, May 18. The score was 7-4.

In the initial inning, Valley tallied the first run of the game. It remained 1-0 until the last of the 6th inning when City College brought in 2 runs.

The Amazons came back in the first of the seventh to score 6 more runs, making the score 7-2. City made 2 more runs before the game ended at 7-4.

Members of Valley's team were: Diane Everets and Joyce Morgan, co-captains, Jane Crisp, Sally Crassweller, Nadine Wells, Flora Wells, Shirley Gamble, Evelyn Hansen, Marilyn Crater, Lorena Perea, Jo Thompson and Irene Hansen.

sented with a trophy by co-captains Jim Smith and Ed Austin.

As Coach E. Y. Johnson presented the letters, he said the V stood for "Valor, Virtue, Victory as opposed to Vulgarity, Vainness, Vulnerability."

Coach Johnson, athletic director at Valley, took charge of the affair and introduced the coaches who spoke on their respective sports and then gave out letter awards.

A total of 51 athletes have earned their awards. They are: cross country—John Garcia and Don Hoover; basketball—Bob Reaves, Jim Quick, Everett Moore, Bill Wells, Bill Wiegman, Bob Hansen, Ed Austin, Dave Pekus and manager Jim Raddatz; baseball—Brad Browne, Bob Edgerton, Pat Flaherty, Ronnie Gerst, Stu McDonald, Everett Moore, Pete Nitrini, Chuck Schreiber, Ed Sierra, Jim Smith, Joe Wawrach, Mel Wawrach; track—Ed Austin, Bill Baker, Don Bankhardt, Bob Bowen, Carl Cook, Johnny Duncan, John Garcia, Jim Halen, Wes Hessler, Don Hoover, Ed Masry, Dwight Mobley, Bill Murchie, Chuck Pendley, J. Kersey, Royer Give Tea For 'Rating' Ephebians

"Ephebians rate with us," remarked Director Vierling Kersey, at the Ephebian tea given by Dr. Kersey and Mrs. Nena Royer, assistant director at Valley College, last Friday afternoon in the Faculty room.

Ephebians from the graduating class of Van Nuys High School, those Ephebians attending Valley, as well as Mr. John Comerford, and Miss Amy Kenealy, principals at Van Nuys High School and Mr. Walter Coultas, assistant director at Valley, attended the tea.

The Ephebians from the high school, sponsored by Mrs. Ruth Hollinger, who were honored were: Mary Burtis, student body president; Shelia Cooney, student body secretary; Annette Heyden, girls' student president; Harry Browne, student body treasurer; Bill Meacham, Joyce Gliever, Lyndle McConnell; Jerry Mitchell; John Hergesheimer, and Eleanor Levine.

Those honored who are now attending Valley were Margaret Marsh, Canoga Park Ephebian and business major at Valley, and Nancy Tarr, a pre-medical student at Valley who was an Ephebian at Van Nuys High.

Mrs. Royer stated that Ephebians are chosen on the basis of leadership, citizenship and scholarship.

"Their purpose is to create ideas, plans and suggestions for their school. They are welcome wherever they go," commented Dr. Kersey.

Miss Burtis and Miss Gliever will attend Valley next semester along with many other students from Van Nuys High.

It won't be long now and good old Southern California will be back to normal. To celebrate the return of the sunshine and warm weather there will probably be many plans made for swimming and dancing parties. May I suggest Pop's Willow Lake as the ideal place to take your guests? Restaurant and bathhouse facilities are available. Pop's is located just off Foothill Boulevard. You can't miss it, just follow the signs.

By the way, if you are in need of a new swimming suit stop at the Toggery, 1033 San Fernando Road, San Fernando. While you are there, you might look around at the fine selection of sport coats, shirts and slacks. It's the Toggery for your clothing needs.

Car owners! Here is an offer to help your budget. The Sherman Woods Service station is giving a 10% discount to Valley J. C. students on all automotive work.

AWS Takes Swim At Clear Creek

By NANCY HELSER

Returning from a week end spent at Camp Clear Creek yesterday were 19 tired and sunburned women.

Accompanying the students were four faculty members, Miss Helen Mindlin, Miss Jeanne Pons, Mrs. Nena Royer and Miss Frances Cochanides. Also included in the trip was Miss Dorothy Rogers, a roommate of Miss Mindlin's.

The group arrived at the camp at 5:30 p.m. Friday, and following dinner, the girls took a moonlight swim.

"The water was just like ice," commented Charlene Shaw, "but we enjoyed it anyhow."

"We arose early on Saturday morning, and the girls had choices of swimming, hiking, playing ping pong, badmiston or volleyball," stated Joan Haas, president of the AWS.

"That afternoon lunch was served around the pool and that was where we got sunburned," piped up Joyce Morgan.

"In speaking for the rest of the girls, I'd like to say that we really had a wonderful week end," concluded Joan.

Others who enjoyed basking in the sun were Betty Crawford, Nancy Wygant, Shirley Shiltz, Nancy Ohms, Jeanne Hon, Evelyn Hansen, Diane Everts, Anita Yelesanko, Pat McClosky, Eleanor Penry and Joyce Hoover.

College Trio Goes To Kiwanis Lunch

Director Vierling Kersey, Shirley Holt and Mike Seeger were representatives from Valley College at a Van Nuys Kiwanis luncheon given in Eaton's Restaurant on May 18.

After the luncheon, the three participated in a half-hour panel stressing the objectives of the future college. They particularly emphasized the importance of having such leadership organizations as the Kiwanis and other service groups interested enough in college life to help build its standards, employ its production and develop its scholastic fund.

Members of the club expressed themselves as desiring to learn more about the college. They showed an active interest in wishing to employ Valley College students in their business establishments.

Valley's representatives promised to accept the cordial invitation to make a return visit to the Kiwanians.

FASHION FLICKER

By SANDEE SLAKOFF

All aglow and ready for fun? Then, of course, you're the girl who knows where she's going!

You might make your move toward the sea—dress in simple sailcloth clamdiggers and add a stiff fly-away cape just for dramatic sun-sation. Collect some lollipop colored jersey shirts to wear with everything you own this summer. Jersey is smart and new in swimsuits, town-dresses and campus coolers.

THE A B C's

Always be cool! It's easy when you know the magic "slip away" of a bolero jacket leaves your arms delightfully bare! Play the double or nothing score . . . choose a checkerboard plaid gingham sun suit that doubles with a matching pleated skirt for day or dancing.

HOT-CHA

Remember the scintillating beat of the "roaring twenties"? Well, designers are now creating Charleston ensembles that will have the whole town dancing! Floating sheer blouses have joined partners with shorter, narrower skirts. Little pointed slippers are now "the shoe of the hour." Pearls and silk scarfs have been tangled together to form collars of sheer beauty. By the look of fashion flairs, it appears a new era has dawned!

Those in charge of the polls were: Joy Schroeder, Dave Nothwang, Diane Baker, Berle Brown, Margy Eldred, Jim Romaker and Cappy Slade.

Those who did the actual vote counting were: Jeanne Marcy, Berle Brown, Ray Cluff, Garth Myers, Margy Eldred and Mrs. Nena Royer, assistant director at Valley.

P.T.A. To Raise Funds For Medical Building

The Los Angeles Tenth District PTA is conducting a fund raising campaign in the city schools between May 22 and June 2, announces Mrs. Nena Royer, assistant director of Valley College.

Purpose of the drive is to obtain the funds necessary to complete financing construction of the new Health Center Building, intended for the use of school pupils in need of medical attention.

A collection will be made on the Valley campus next week, according to Mrs. Royer.

Tea was used by the Chinese more than 500 years before Christ was born.

Sigma Tau Sigma Members Attend Harbor Cruise

As the guests of Dr. Arthur G. Horton and the City College chapter of the Sigma Tau Sigma, Social Science Honor Society, Mr. Donald Prismon and five Valley College STS students attended a cruise and tour of Long Beach Harbor on Friday, May 19.

Those attending with Mr. Prismon were: Richard Adams, Bob Wegener, Mike Seeger, Jeanne Marcy and Dellaine Hazen. More than 30 members from City College attended the event, which lasted two hours.

The narrator for the trip was Mr. Alvin K. Maddy, executive secretary of the Board of Harbor Commissioners of Long Beach.

Mr. Maddy explained in detail the finger piers, the dry docks, the automatic light house, the portable oil derricks, the naval base and the radar station made from a converted oil derrick.

Dr. Horton accepted the thanks and appreciation of Valley's students by stressing the possibility of repeating the trip next year.

Cover Of Catalog To Be Designed By Art Students

Advertising art students will compete for the honor of designing the cover of Valley College's first printed catalogue.

Joyce Egger, Lloyd Jones, Joan Brask, Marcia Wynn and Bill Branum will vie for the artistic honor.

Each student in the class was asked to submit one or more ideas, and from these contributions five were selected.

The five students are making their designs technically perfect for final judging. Color schemes will accompany the black and white drawings.

VALLEY STUDENTS GO SPRING PICNICKING

Griffith Park was the scene of a spring picnic, complete with food, merry-go-round rides, baseball, football and tennis.

Couples attending were Mary Jo Henderson and Bob Snyder, Eddie Neville and Rae Vackar, Ray Carter and Mary Marks, Dean Reddick and Jan Brittson, Stu MacDonald and Nancy Bolin, Garth Meyers and Sandy Willis, Duane Horsky and Barbara Sutherland, Johnny Duncan and Marilyn Griffin.
